

Advanced Trauma Life Support (ATLS)

(from the <http://www.stmichaelshospital.com/programs/trauma/education/advanced-trauma-life-support.php>, on July 31, 2012)

Mandatory for all PGY1 residents – offered 3x annually

The Advanced Trauma Life Support (ATLS) Course was established by the American College of Surgeons to provide a concise approach to assessment and management of the priorities in multiply injured patients.

At St. Michael's Hospital, the course is taught over two days and is accredited for Continuing Medical Education. The course consists of pre and post course tests, lectures, case presentations and practical experience. Only physicians are eligible for ATLS certification. The courses are limited to 16 participants.
