General Surgery Residency Training Program

PGY5 Study Time Policy 2020

For the period of March 1 - June 30, 2020, PGY5 residents will be assigned to a hospital site at which the resident has recently completed a rotation. (Note CAGS Study Time Policy starts on April 6, but we will start March 1, 2020).

 REMINDER  the deadline for registering for the Spring Exam is before January 12, 2020.

- Written Exam: APRIL 28 – 29, 2020
- Oral Exam: MAY 28, 2020

PGY5 Study Schedule 2020

March 01 – April 20:

1. Minimum of 1 in 7 of days on call to a maximum of 1 in 4 days on call during the study period.
2. Minimum of 2 days of ambulatory clinical activity per week. This includes participation in endoscopy, clinics, tumour boards and quality assurance rounds.

APRIL 21–APRIL 30: OFF

May 3 – May 20:

1. Minimum of 1 in 7 of days on call to a maximum of 1 in 4 days on call during the study period.
2. Minimum of 2 days of ambulatory clinical activity per week. This includes participation in endoscopy, clinics, tumour boards and quality assurance rounds.

May 21-May 31: OFF

June 1 – 30:

1. PGY5 residents must schedule an elective clinical month in June. This elective must be approved by the Program Director.
2. Allowed and expected to participate in on call duties, either associated with the elective, or in the program as needed, such as in the call pool.